MEADIATORS HOLD MEXICO CONFERENCE NIAGARA FALLS

A. B. C. Envoys Who Have Undertaken to Prevent War Will Try to Solve Problem on Canadian Side.

DOOR IS STILL OPEN FOR CHIEF CARRANZA

Envoys Hope Rebel Leader Will Agree to Armistice. Meanwhile United States Intends to Hold Vera Cruz.

Washington, May 5.—The three South American envoys who have undertaken, by diplomacy, to settle Mexico's civil strife as well as her national difficulties, announced tonight that the first formal conference with the different parties interested in the mediation would be held at Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada, May 18.

Secretary Bryan made the announcement for the three diplomats in a brief statement which read as follows:

"The mediators have notified the different parties that Niagara Falls, Canada, has been selected as the place where the mediators will confer with representatives of the different parties interested in the mediation and the settlement of the May has been fixed as the date for the conference to begin."

The language of the declaration attracted attention for although the envoys had in a note earlier said they would withdraw their invitation for a representative of the different parties to the constitutionalists and the Huerta forces were arranged, specific parties to the negotiations were named in the state department announcement.

It later was learned authoritatively that the reason for this was the fact that a further effort was being made to induce General Carranza to accept a representative of the mediators. The American government has not chosen its representatives. President Wilson and Secretaries Bryan and Lane discussed many names today. They are seeking to get men of training in diplomatic affairs.

It will take several days for the Huerta envoys to reach here, some of the incoming time of the mediators to the president in considering men for the mission.

As yet, there has been no formal basis of negotiation, neither the United States nor Huerta having set forth demands. Carranza learned today from a high administration official that in all likelihood the United States would not insist now in a mere settlement of the incidents at a mere point but would aim to bring about a settlement of the whole Mexican problem that it could recognize a constitutional government which would be able to restore tranquility in the southern republic.

AMERICAN FORCES STAY IN VERA CRUZ

The disposition of General Carranza to eliminate himself from the mediation proceedings, if it should include a decision of Mexico's internal problems, has not met with the favor of administration officials. They do not think this decision is final.

It is virtually certain that withdrawal of American forces from Vera Cruz will not be ordered until some definite settlement of the whole Mexican problem is in sight.

The death of two of the Americans wounded at Vera Cruz, bringing the fatality list up to five, was the announcement that the president, Secretaries Garrison and Daniels would move to Brooklyn to attend services for the seventeen dead, being brought back on the Montana, and orders to the hospital ship Solace to bring the wounded back to New York and Boston so that the sick may be in cooler climate, were the chief developments during the day.

"The war department continued plans for possible evacuation of the state department was arranging for American vessels to leave Mexico by the hundreds.

Niagara Falls, Ontario, was finally selected as a place to hold the mediation conference because it is neutral territory, yet in close proximity to the United States. The fact that Niagara Falls is on the Canadian side, and is known more as a scenic resort than as a political center, was a move, in the opinion of many officials here, any impression that the negotiations are to take place on their territory for diplomatic reasons.

JURY PROBE TO CENTER AROUND ALLEGED EFFORT TO BRIBE REV. RAGSDALE

Solicitor General Rests His Case, and Defense Begins Introduction of Rebuttal Evidence—Hearing to Be Resumed Today.

There were strong indications yesterday that Detective William J. Burns will be detained under heavy bond as a material witness before the grand jury in its investigation into bribery charges when he returns to Atlanta from Oklahoma City, where he is now testifying before a government land case.

His lieutenant, Dan S. Lehon, superintendent of the southern division of the Burns service, was ordered held by Judge Hill yesterday and was put under bond of $1,000. No other arrests, however, were ordered at the time. Lehon's bond was made at once.

Solicitor Dorsey was asked by a reporter for the Constitution Tuesday afternoon if any further arrests had been proposed. He stated that this was not likely until the return of Burns, when action would be taken. He took against the noted sleuth to force him to appear before the grand jury.

"It Looked Like It." Dorsey would not say affirmatively whether or not Burns would be detained. He said that "it looked like it." The state seems determined to press vigorous and exhaustive investigation into the bribery and coercion charges that have been made by witnesses for the state in the new trial motion for Frank. The jury probe will center around the Rev. C. B. Ragdsdale incident, in which minister makes a confession to the effect that he was bribed to frame the sensational "Constitution" affidavit, which he later retracted.

Solicitor Dorsey said Tuesday afternoon that he did not know definitely when he would be ready to return to court, and his staff were so busy engaged in fighting the motion for a new trial that they could not spare him.

Lehon was notified Tuesday morning that he was to appear before the grand jury and put up the required amount of $1,000. The order against him was issued early in the morning.

Solicitor Rests Case. Solicitor Dorsey's case rested after noon Tuesday, and the defense began its rebuttal testimony. Numerous affidavits were introduced to show the genuineness of the "Constitution" affidavit, which was attacked by the state in its motion for a new trial.

Debate was made of the charges of bribery and coercion. The defense, the defense investigator, who was the target for the bulk of the accusations, made a statement that Dorsey, denied in a brief affidavit that he had been bribed.

The first proceeding Tuesday was the examination of Miss Nellie Wood, the young girl witness accused by J. P. Eubanks when Eubanks went upon the stand Monday morning. She had asked Solicitor Dorsey to let her speak in her own defense, and the request was granted by Judge Hill.

She declared that she had been engaged to be married, and that Eubanks had been violent and cruelly treated her. She denied heatedly that she had ever been in a room with Eubanks, as he had charged, and she was an absolute truth, and a detestable character.

After a cross-examination by attorney Rose, the girl was brought back to the stand. She was asked to repeat her story, and she did so, and she was asked to repeat her story, and she did so, and she was asked to repeat her story, and she did so.

She stated that she had been a milliner, a telephone operator, a worker in the pencil factory and in other lines. She was himself, what she has worked at during a certain period of her career, she lowered her head momentarily, then answered:

Para, Brazil, May 5.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who with his party, arrived here today on the steamer Dunstan from Manaus, was greeted on board by a representative of the governor of the state of Para, municipal authorities and prominent persons.

Thanking the delegation for their reception, Colonel Roosevelt referred to the great progress made by Brazil and praised highly the work of the Brazilian commission under Colonel London, which made the exploring trip with him.

Colonel Roosevelt and his companions were so fatigued that they decided not to go ashore until tomorrow, when they will tour the city and attend a luncheon given in their honor by the governor. The Roosevelt party will leave for New York by way of Barbados.

Roosevelt Tells of Trip. Colonel Roosevelt, in an interview with the press, told of his exploring trip through the wilds of Brazil. He said that the expedition has proved a signal success. It was undertaken originally for the American Museum of Natural History.

"During our trip George K. Cherry and I found many new birds and mammals, reptiles and batrachians, and fish, chiefly from regions not hitherto traversed by any collector, and many new plants were discovered by our party."

The expedition has taken part of our trip was geographical. In the exploration of the Amazon, we explored the upper part of its course was utterly new to us. We found many new Indians along its banks, while the lower part was known to a few men only.

Colonel Roosevelt takes it rise in the high uplands of the western part of the state of Amazonas, in the morning of the thirteenth parallel of south latitude and between longitude 59 and 60 west.

"We embarked in latitude twelve degrees south, and in longitude 59 and 60 west. We traveled for many days, and we found many new birds and mammals, reptiles and batrachians, and fish, chiefly from regions not hitherto traversed by any collector, and many new plants were discovered by our party."

"In latitude twelve degrees south, we struck the mouth of a big river, and we traveled for many days, and we found many new birds and mammals, reptiles and batrachians, and fish, chiefly from regions not hitherto traversed by any collector, and many new plants were discovered by our party."

Liner Franconia Picks Up 13 Men in Open Boat Who Tell of the Burning of the Freighter Columbian.

Boston, May 5.—The mystery surrounding the identity of the steamer on fire in the westbound transatlantic liner Franconia, which was rescued tonight, was solved tonight when wireless messages from the liner Franconia told of the burning of the freighter Columbian, and the rescue of thirteen of her crew from a small boat.

The death of Chief Steward Matthews, whose body the survivors had in charge, and the disappearance of a second boat, in which were nineteen men, including the first and second officers, also were reported.

Whether the number of missing was represented by those said to be in the second boat was uncertain tonight. Estimates by officials of the Leyland and Phoenix lines placed the number of the crew at between forty-five and fifty. The messages from the Franconia said that only thirty-three men, represented by the occupants of the two boats. It was thought possible that there was a third boat, commanded by Captain McDonald, of the Columbian.

Survivors Were Exhausted. The survivors were so exhausted by their experiences that they could tell little of what had happened, and steamship officials expressed the opinion that the omission in the wireless messages of mention of the captain might be due to this fact.

The Franconia searched until nightfall for the missing boat, but without success. Then Captain Miller, of the Cunard, sent word ashore that he had discovered the missing boat, and that the survivors were in a small boat, and that they had been rescued.

Before turning for his destination, Captain Miller had notified the steamers Manhattan and Liverpool, with eastbound, of the missing boat, and they sent word that they had changed their courses and were heading toward the missing boat.

The Columbian was owned by the Leyland and Phoenix lines, and was on board the steamer Franconia for voyage from Liverpool to New York. She carried no passengers.

The latest word of her case today from the New German Lloyd, of New York, which had stood by for twenty-four hours, was that the vessel was afloat throughout and that the funnel and forecast had gone overboard.

On Board the Steamer Franconia, via Sable Island, N. S. May 5.—Thirteen survivors of the British steamer Columbian, bound from Antwerp for New York, were picked up at sea by the Cunard Franconia, bound from Liverpool for Boston, this day.

"What is Hugh Dorsey going to do?" This is the question one hears to the jubilation of the hotels and wherever politicians gather to some extent.

"I am going to devote all my energies to this campaign," I have turned all my business affairs over to others to look after and

Regarding the politics of the state. You are not going to get any ideas from me. I am not going to get at and defend any one. You can hear all kinds of conjectures, but I am not going to say anything. I have no authority for Mr. Dorsey's statements. Dorsey's mail is steadily increasing. Not a day but that he has received a letter from some one entering the race for governor, or to oppose him for governor.

The Dorsey boom manifested some weeks ago and it has gained ground in the most extraordinary manner. It is now being recognized to be reckoned with. The present campaign has been a success for Dorsey in their trips to various parts of the state and the country. He has been seen in all the country papers and they would like to know just what Mr. Dorsey intends to do.

Some days ago a reporter for The Constitution, who is a very good friend of mine, was going to speak either political or non-political. He was to speak from now on from now on I shall visit with many counties and towns. He is going to speak in twenty counties. Only about 100 more workmen are to be employed. I am not going to say that I shall cover as much territory as previous years.

AFTER ONE MONTH OF CAMPAIGN

THE GOVERNOR SLATES IS ENCOURAGED

It is not a day but that the Governor slates is encouraged. The United States senate was one month old and the reports have been looking over the past thirty days. It is now a day and a half. The reports that have come in thus far are very encouraging. The Governor slates is in the state about 2,500 letters in all. This is a very good result. The Governor slates received during the entire four months of the campaign, his mail is steadily increasing. It is now a day and a half. The Governor slates is expected to receive a large number of votes. The Governor slates is now coming in at a rate of over 100 votes per day. The Governor slates is expected to receive the proportion of unfavorable votes is

Dr. L. G. Hardman, of Commerce, has been elected to the Georgia House of Representatives three openly avowed candidates for Governor. He is now in the city. Dr. Hardman's headquarters in the city are at the Commerce, but a little later on he will open headquarters in this city. He has been

Both are confining their campaigns to sending out literature and making apparently national tours. The results they are receiving from this method is nothing but a waste of time to the stump.

There are headquarters for three candidates—Judge Nat R. Harris, Thomas R. Frazier and John R. Cooper. Hardman's headquarters are at the Commercial Hotel, Savannah and Hardwick at Sanderville. So far, the results of the campaign are not what have a warm political season. Atlanta will be nothing like the hotbed it formerly was.

This Is Nemo Week in Our Corset Salon

And Nemo Week Stands for Economy and Education

ECONOMY Dealers everywhere prepare for Nemo Week by placing in stock the very latest Nemo models—always the last word in corset style and comfort—and replenishing their stocks of the well-known and popular numbers that are always in universal demand. This gives you your selection from full lines of fresh, new goods, and the very newest fabrics and styles; therefore, the BEST POSSIBLE VALUES. And expert fitting will assure you a corset that will give you lasting satisfaction and long wear—that's another economy.

EDUCATION During this great trade movement, dealers vie with each other to give the best Nemo corset service. This is highly important, especially this season, when Fashion's requirement is for a fashionable figure rather than a fashionable gown. The keen rivalry between expert fitters in the various stores insures you their most able assistance in the fascinating study of correct style, and in the selection of the corset best adapted to attain that style for each individual figure.

The Rivalry of Nemo Week Is That of SERVICE—Not PRICE

Nemo Week this year brings you the only complete standardized line of corsets in existence, from the old short models to the extreme of present fashion, including—

KOPSERVICE—Four Wonderful Models, all at $5 SELF-REDUCING—Thirty Models, $3, $4, $5, $7.50 LASTIKOPS—Ten Models at $3.00, $5.00 and $10

All former successes will be eclipsed by this Nemo Week. Practically every woman will realize that she cannot afford to miss this opportunity to study the new Nemo models.

SENATORIAL FIGHT IN WARE CO. OPENED BY THOS. HARDWICK

Waycross, Ga., May 5.—(Special).—The long term senatorial fight in Ware county before a crowd of Ware voters. He was introduced by W. W. Lambdin and after referring to his record as a congressman, declared that while he was working for the people's interest his two opponents, Governor

Slater and Tom Felzer, were taking life many, one in a machine street mission, the other in a law office in Washington.

He said he couldn't discuss Felzer's record at length because Felzer did not have much of any record.

His remarks about Slater were mostly made to show that Slater had opposed the movement of which he has been a staunch backer.

He said that when Slater was president of the senate he opposed Hoke Smith's quitting the governor's office, and doing the very thing Slater is now fighting on doing.

COCHRAN VISITING FRIENDS IN MACON

Macon, Ga., May 5.—(Special).—Ralph O. Cochran, of Atlanta, candidate for the long term senatorship to succeed United States Senator Hoke Smith, arrived in Macon this afternoon on a visit of handshaking and "politics." He met numerous of his friends here and spent the entire afternoon talking of his campaign and his prospects.

Mr. Cochran stated that he is running strictly on the ticket of a business man.

"I am opposed to any policy of government," he said, "characterized by 'isms' and reforms that produce unsettled financial conditions. We are tired of bankruptcies and financial disasters."

Chalmers "Porosknit" Guaranteed Means—Coolness—Comfort—Quality

Read why Chalmers "Porosknit" is so comfortable—so much for the money. Read of the Ideal behind "Porosknit's" manufacture and guarantee. Then judge if imitations will content you.

Chalmers "Porosknit" would still feel the same. Yet—the user—would suffer.

Underwear can be made to feel something like Chalmers "Porosknit." But the "look" is all. None may match the genuine in its real features.

The "Hidden" Quality

We have been told that the yarn in "Porosknit" is feather thin. It is true. But we could use less costly combed yarn. That we could pocket thousands of extra dollars each year.

True. We might.

The same careful workmanship could be employed in finishing such less good yarn—and back. See how the stretch is opposite to the rest. This means full elasticity to the feet. It gives at every turn or bend.

There can be no "cutting in the crotch." Our Closed Crotch is comfortable. It fits. It stays put. "Porosknit" is made in all styles—for man, for boy.

Chalmers "Porosknit" is guaranteed unconditionally (a bond with every garment) as follows:

"If any garment bearing the genuine Chalmers 'Porosknit' label, and not marked 'made in' or 'imported from' the label, fails to give you the value in underwear and underwear returns it direct to us and we will refund the money, including postage."

"OLD BRIGADES" AGAIN IN REUNION

Veterans Who Fought for the Confederacy Flocking to Jacksonville—First Parade Will Be Held Today.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 5.—Survivors who wore the gray in the war between the states gathered by the thousands in Jacksonville today preparatory to the opening of the twenty-fourth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans here tomorrow.

Housed in the tents of Camp Kirby-Smith, the veterans recalled again the scenes of Chickamauga and Missionary Ridge, and the suffering and hardships of the conflict between the north and the south.

All day long the veterans held meetings today and tonight. The Confederate Southern Memorial association met this afternoon and the Sons of Confederate Veterans held its first meeting tonight. Neither organization transacted business of importance.

The arrival early this morning of General Bennett H. Young, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, was the chief event of interest preliminary to the opening of the reunion exercises attendant upon the annual reunion of the Confederate Veterans which will be held here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

Mark Trammell, governor of Florida, and Van C. Swearingin, mayor of Jacksonville, formally will welcome the veterans at their first meeting tomorrow.

The First Parade.

The first parade of the reunion will be held tomorrow afternoon and will include the sponsors and maids of honor from the various southern states who were sent here as a tribute of honor to the veterans. A parade of the Sons of Confederate Veterans will be held Thursday and on Friday the veterans' parade will be held.

Alabama's division of the veterans will return to the state of Ohio tomorrow night a battle flag which was captured from one of Ohio's regiments in the historic conflict. Governor Cox, of Ohio, will accept the return of the colors. Various divisional meetings and social events also are scheduled for tomorrow.

One of the largest delegations to arrive today for the reunion was from Memphis, Tenn. The latter city is seeking the 1916 meeting of the veterans in gray. The Oklahoma delegation also arrived late today.

Selection of next year's meeting place and election of officers for the coming year will be made by the veterans on Thursday.

WILSON IS SEEKING BANKING GOVERNOR

Secretary Houston May Be Selected for Post Declined by Richard Olney.

Washington, May 5.—President Wilson is searching for a governor for the federal reserve board. After several months of search, he has determined on Richard Olney, secretary of state, as head of the board which will regulate the nation's system of twelve regional banks.

Mr. Olney declined, unwilling, at his advanced age, to undertake new responsibilities.

Many administration officials believe the secretary of the department of agriculture, may be the man finally chosen in Mr. Olney's place. It is an open secret that the president has wanted to appoint Mr. Houston to the federal reserve board, but did not wish to make changes in his cabinet.

Houston, a prominent member of the United States army, was selected by the president to serve the post of the unpaid term of the federal reserve board, and his name was suggested by the president.

It is known since Mr. Olney's declining to accept the post, that the president has been anxious to get a new man in at that post.

Mr. Olney's declining to accept the post has been a surprise to many.

SWEEPING VICTORY BY ANTI-BLEASER MEN

South Carolina Governor Defeated in Contest With U. S. Senator Smith.

Columbia, S. C., May 5.—First test of strength between Governor Cole L. Blease and United States Senator J. B. Smith, candidates for the United States senate at the forthcoming state primary, was furnished yesterday by the democratic conventions held in every county of the state.

The anti-bleaser men won a sweeping victory and will send practically no delegates to the state convention to be held in Columbia May 28 while less than thirty Blease delegates were elected.

Senator Smith was elected a delegate to the state convention from Lee county while Newberry county, the home of Governor Blease and Fred H. Donnelly, assistant attorney general, gave neither a place in the representation.

The question of primary term will be given consideration at the state convention. It is expected that the anti-bleaser men will win in many of the conventions. About half of the delegates elected will be anti-bleaser men.

LEPER IS DEPORTED BY CHICAGO OFFICIALS

Chicago, May 5.—Chicago and Cook county authorities congratulated themselves today over the successful deportation of Charles Wolgren, a native of Sweden, who was taken to the county hospital in February suffering from a disease which was diagnosed as leprosy.

Because of the fear which the disease engenders all details of the deportation were kept secret and none but the crew of the train on which Wolgren rode in a private car knew of his presence aboard.

The governor of a state secretly issued orders today for the removal of Wolgren from the county hospital and all connected with the train and the hospital were warned that they were to leave the state as soon as Wolgren was received here today that Wolgren was about as much a liability to leave for Sweden in a few hours.
